

TRANSCRIPTION OF THE VIDEO TESTIMONIAL WITH MSGR JULIAN PORTEUS

Wednesday, April 27th, 2005; 1pm

Good Shepherd Catholic Seminary, Homebush – Sydney, Australia.

Also present were Fr. TAN VAN NGUYEN and Fr. PETER DWYER

My name is bishop Julian Porteus, I am the auxiliary bishop in the diocese of Sydney, and I am also the rector of the Good Shepherd Seminary in Sydney. We had the opportunity this afternoon to speak with Myrna and with many of the seminarians.

My impression of Myrna was one of who has the qualities of joy, of humility, of being in peace, and these are the signs of the presence of God, signs of the Holy Spirit. And what she shared from her experiences, was again, for me personally, a deep sense that this message was important for all of us to hear.

A message to particularly encourage unity in the church; to encourage unity in the families

And I found the message pretty moving, pretty touching.
And as for myself personally, it was a special spiritual moment.
