

With Pope Francis together with Syrian Mystic
Myrna Nazzour

Vatican 06. - 08. 10. 2018

„I am very grateful that with the approval and blessing of the Metropolitan of the Greek Catholic Church in Slovakia, Archbishop Ján Babjak SJ as well as Patriarch of the Melkite Greek Catholic Church across the Middle East, The Most Blessed Joseph Absi, the NAPS Institute could host Mrs Myrna Nazzour in Rome and that me and my wife could accompany this precious woman to her historically first personal encounter with the Pope of the Catholic Church. The Holy Father said during our brief interview that he has known about the events in Souffanieh and His Holiness has sent his solideo - the white papal cap that he wore – to Syria,“ said NAPS founder, Peter Solej, to the media.

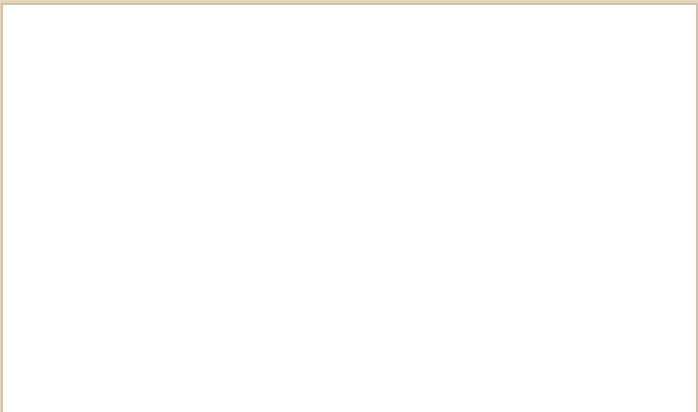

Visit to the Vatican Gardens

Audience granted by His Beatitude The Most Blessed Joseph Absi, Melkite Greek Catholic Patriarch of Antioch and All the East, Alexandria and of Jerusalem and visit to the Patriarchal Church Cosmedin in Rome.

