

Message from Our Lord Jesus Christ on Holy Saturday April 19th, 2025 – Soufanieh, Damascus, Syria

«My beloved ones,
why fear and despair?

Be patient.

Remain steadfast in hope,
and let your hope be in Me,

for I am your help,

and without Me, life will be difficult for you.

Do not be troubled or concerned about what tomorrow may bring.

Rid yourselves of that which leads you into sin.

Struggle and free yourselves from your weakness in the face of temptation, for the enemy surrounds you from every side.

The hardest thing is when you become enemies to your own souls.

Do not let Satan influence your faith, your freedom, and your will, lest he gain authority over you.

Do not deceive yourselves.

Be on guard with yourselves.

Resist the evil within you.

I have promised you, and I am faithful to My promises; but are you faithful to the trust I have given you?

Are you a ray of light in the darkness of this life, for souls who wish to reform their lives to draw closer to Me ?

My children, trust in Me... for I desire only what I know is good for you. »
